

KEVIN MAYNUS FOR HOUSE OF DELEGATES

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR THE 27TH DELEGATE DISTRICT:

If elected, I'll work on the following issues during my first two years in office:

With the constant increase in our taxes, gas, and insurance and the general cost of living Kevin Maynus will support an increase in the state's minimum wage in order to help West Virginia families.

Kevin Maynus will fight to remove the 6 % food tax.

Kevin Maynus will fight to improve healthcare for all West Virginia citizens.

Kevin Maynus will work to ensure that West Virginia coal miners have adequate safety laws and regulations.

Kevin Maynus believes that every child deserves a good education. He will fight to improve the teacher student ratio.

Kevin Maynus will fight to stop the unnecessary spending of taxpayers' money.

Kevin Maynus believes that by changing the West Virginia tax structure, we will attract more businesses, therefore increasing employment within the state.

Kevin Maynus supports tourism in West Virginia and believes the tourism industry is one of the largest sources of economic development for the state of West Virginia. Kevin Maynus pledges his support to ensure that tourism continues to expand and remains a viable means of economic development for all West Virginia Citizens.

Kevin Maynus would greatly appreciate your support and assistance during the upcoming election!
